Born and reared in Burke County, Lori still resides there with her husband, Wade, and their three sons. She became a Realtor in 2003 and loves the art of the deal while working with clients. Prior to becoming a Realtor, Lori built a strong client base through her many contacts working in a salon since 1992.

As a contractor with Sure Point Builders, Wade began building homes in Buncombe County. Lori immediately fell in love with the beauty of the area and its people. She looks forward to the gorgeous mountain views while driving to work in Black Mountain, where she loves representing her husband and his brothers' company. Strong family ties are most important to Lori, so she was thrilled when her father Sam Buckner, and sister Beth Woodard, joined the firm. Working in a family business makes each day a joy and creates a natural, honest atmosphere to assist clients.
